

~~SECRET~~

DIARY NOTES

DD/S

3 February 1966

25X1A

[Handwritten signature]

2. [redacted] George Meloon called to advise that the wooden trusses on the roof at the [redacted] warehouse were cracking under the weight of the snow and he had 100 men shoring up the roof. There is no ready way to remove the snow.

25X1A

25X1A

4. Security Briefing. A Security briefing on personnel and counter-intelligence security was given to Mr. Helms at 10:15 today preparatory to giving a similar briefing to the DCI. The briefing went well and Mr. Helms was quite satisfied.

5. Refurnishing the DCI Suite. Colonel White called and shortly thereafter [redacted] called concerning new rugs for the DCI, furniture for [redacted] and rugs and furniture for the secretaries. I called a halt on the work situation and we will meet with all concerned so we have a full meeting of the minds as to what is wanted and what should be furnished. An appointment has been arranged with the DCI to discuss his wishes for furnishings in his office.

RLB:nfa

~~SECRET~~

